Slide notes: There are multiple ways of loading Journal Options, and when we have Journal Options listed on the launch pad, then the system will remember the last Options that we have had here. So if we leave the Journal menu then the same Options will be automatically present next time we return to the Journal menu.

Slide notes: And we see that we have the same Options now as when we left the Journal Menu.

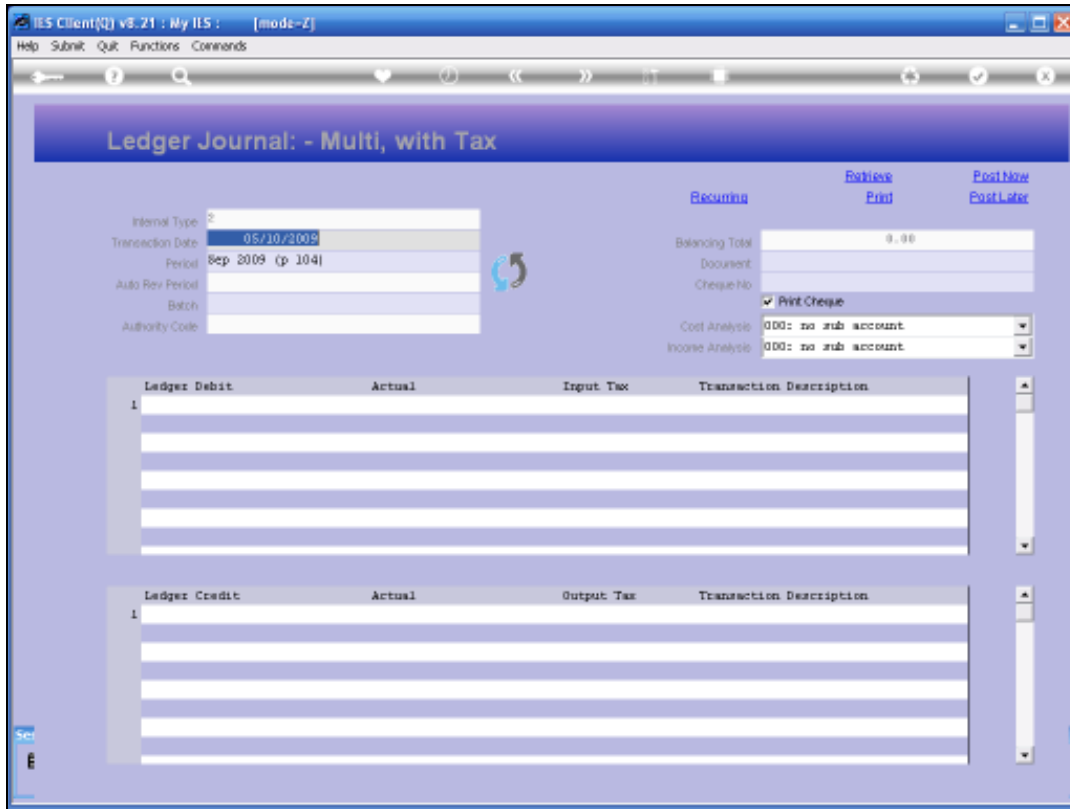

Slide 7

Slide notes: A Journal Option is opened when we dbl-click on an Option in the mini table of currently listed Journal Options.

Slide 8

Slide notes: This is how we open a Journal to perform.
